We've been busy Going Green at the Library. As part of our yearlong Going Green campaign, we've been exploring what it means to go green through learning, creativity, and collaboration.

Whether you're looking for ratings on energy efficient appliances or searching for tips on green parenting, we can help find the answers to your questions.

- Attend a Going Green event at the Library, or ask about our wide selection of books covering green topics.
- Visit our Going Green webpage (green.webrary.org) for information about green living, alternative energy, and more.

- Check out our Going Green blog (greenmgpl.wordpress.com) for fun facts, green living tips, and announcements about Going Green events at the Library and around the community.

We love to be creative at the Library, so we've been filming Going Green videos. Check out the Library's Youtube channel at www.youtube.com/webrary.

Finally, Going Green isn't just about the Library; it's about Morton Grove. The campaign is an opportunity for Morton Grove organizations and businesses to partner for a common cause. If your organization or business is doing something green, we'd like to hear about it. Email us at info@webrary.org or call us at 847-965-4220.
